Stephen Powell's full statment concerning Todd Bentley

Dear Church,

As some of you know who have followed my wife and I in ministry these last several years, with Fresh Fire Ministries around the world, along with being involved with Rick Joyner & Mo Rick goes back fifteen years. He was the first author in the prophetic movement that I ever read. His books to this day have had a profound influence on my life in shaping me into the minister and when I can remember getting his books and teaching cds for Christmas from my parents. To get out of High School, to take five months off of work, lock myself in my room, and seek the Lord and that I first began to move in the prophetic and healing gifts. That was when I really fell in love and remained to this day and affected every part of my life. I'll always be grateful to Rick & Todd for what have happened and regrettable things I've become aware of more recently. I'll always honor my intimacy with God, & the prophetic. I love and honor them and that's why what I'm about to s much fasting, prayer, and hundreds of hours of counseling with wise counselors over the last few years. I want to thank all the people all over the world to hear my heart, receive my honest witness of the things I've seen and heard. I believe that God breaks God's heart when things like this come up. These are his children that we're dealing with; that God's will would be done and the true freedom and deliverance He desires for them and his family;

The information I'm about to present I believe to be true. I have done the best that I can to do so. I have done the best I can to sort through hearsay and separate fact from fiction. This is my testimony, as well as hard copy evidence that I've gathered such as screen shots from cell phone records.

I wish to state right at the beginning of this letter that I do not want anything personally from Todd and Jessa helped, and leaders who have failed them and the body held accountable. I'm not seeking revenge for ways that Todd has wronged me in the past. I'm just trying to do what's right.

WHAT I KNOW OR BELIEVE TO KNOW ABOUT TODD BENTLEY AND THE ALLEGATION

I believe that Todd Bentley had a genuine salvation experience as a young man. I believe he has a very powerful gift from God. But I've also come to believe that Todd Bentley is terribly deceived about the consequences of his decisions, not just in his life, but the lives of countless men, women, and children who have been deceived, and that He needs major help, which I really hope and pray He can find.

As I've already stated, I love Todd and I'll always thank God for how He used Todd in my life. I love to cover a multitude of sins as we're commanded to do in the scriptures, to not judge anyone until they have done a deeper work of sanctification and transformation in their lives. But to my disappointment and Although I ultimately believe that our sins and our struggles do not define who we are in Christ, I believe that Todd Bentley has demonic identities and found ways to justify sin in the midst of a ministry culture overrun by sin. I believe to be an honest assessment of this sinful identity and the working of Todd's sinful nature. This has only been revealed to me within the last few months.

I believe that Todd has a perverse sexual addiction that He picked up when He was a young man as a kid. Todd has an appetite for a variety of sexual sins including both homosexual and heterosexual advances toward (and in some cases engaged in sexual sin with) a number of different men and women under his leadership care in the church.

I believe that Todd was preyed on sexually as a child, and I believe that that same demonic power kept their guard down because they felt all was safe being in the presence of an anointed man of God who was desperately wicked (Jer.17:9). I believe that Todd's own heart has deceived him and has kept him from seeing what I've gained in my investigation I've conducted this summer shows predatory behavior on Todd's part who were in a place of hardship and vulnerability, even financial hardship, being offered more.

I believe that both Todd and his wife Jessa are both complicit in this sexual perversion and have led many women, into their marriage bed. Todd and Jessa's relationship and marriage began in sexual sin and has continued their lives over the years, despite the bond of marriage they share.

I believe Todd is not fit for public ministry. On top of his sexual sins, He has proven to be a substance abuser and He is a substance abuser that has drawn many others into these sins with him over the years. His moral failures, and abuse of others that He cannot be trusted with the care of God's people.

HOW DID I GET INVOLVED IN THIS?

I first met Todd in 2012 when He found me working as a janitor in a small church in my home town. He was mentoring me in ministry and helped me get established as an itinerant. But for the last several years, I've been preaching a fresh holiness message and anointing I began to move in in 2017. I had seen inappropriate leadership about to have it dealt with, but unfortunately I saw no real serious action taken on it.

In early June of this year I had a powerful prophetic dream in which I was standing in a heavenly realm and was given to me to know that major change was coming to the church, and that righteous judgment was being given specifically that leadership in the church were being given a clear and direct charge from the Lord for their judgment. At the time, I had been meditating on scriptures like (1 Cor.5:3,5) where Paul said

(1 Cor.5:3,5)

"For I indeed, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have already judged (as though I were present) the destruction of the flesh, that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus."

Scriptures like these which entail necessary apostolic righteous judgment in extreme cases in our day due to what can only be described to me as serious error due to an overreaction to the Lord Jesus Christ, we as leaders must be bold, courageous, and fearless in the face of sin and abomination.

calls us to handle these matters. This was the charge I believe that was being released from word.

Right after having this heavenly encounter at Moravian Falls on June the 9th of this year, I in drunkenness, substance abuse, lying, cheating, stealing, and even worse: leadership in the I had never been made aware of this level of serious sin and what I would call “abominable p conclusion as to why things are being manifest now is that God is exposing them to be dealt

WHAT I HAVE DONE WITH THIS INFORMATION SINCE IT FIRST STARTED COMING TO

At the end of June/ early July, I compiled a 32 page report with my findings concerning Todd being written, but he said they were old, exaggerated, and false (which He has maintained u
When the report was completed, I shared it with a couple of leaders at the time in order to ha others who claimed to be authorities in Todd's life, (due to the fact that I did not have Rick's and prophetic leaders at the time because I felt they all needed to be aware of the situation.

The report was successfully submitted to Rick and the others. I asked for a meeting with Ric about this serious issue which has been very confusing and disappointing to me.

Some of the witnesses I talked to at the beginning of my investigation have since withdrawn this network of sin and cover-ups. I've come across at least one witness who was paid off an sins and abominations he's witnessed. And in some cases, I personally have been threaten

The initial report was to only be submitted to leaders who had some level of input into Todd's of leaders all over the world.

I'm not a trained professional investigator or journalist. I'm just someone who is seeking truth, see purity and holiness in the bride so that God can trust us with greater glory in the future. I've never been involved in anything like this at this level before, and I've handled some things poorly. I've tried to the best of my ability to move with love, patience, carefulness, prayer, and wisdom and

At this time I am shaken at the possibility of unfounded statements being circulated around the church in false accusation. But I confess that this is not an easy situation to handle. I felt compelled to look into and address it. But it seems that they have not been adequately addressed and I have no hope that Todd's current leadership covering will ever handle this right, which is why I'm pre

At the end of the day, given the evidence I have and the 100's of hours I've spent on the phone, I have lost the privilege to minister to God's people any longer, in full time ministry. When someone who has been drunk, lying, & cheating going back more than 20 years... and they have repeatedly been in ministry, yet they continue to behave in this matter.... in my mind and through what I can see, I will never see people ever again, in their own public ministry. I'm still holding onto hope that this level of exposure is necessary for ultimately saving their souls. I still hold onto hope that Todd will seek repentance of cleansing and deliverance, a transformed and truly restored man to Jesus. Up until this point I have hope that there still can be.

To be a minister of the gospel, to have charge of the flock of God, to take into your care your people, to state a vulnerability,... and then to take advantage of the people of God financially, to take advantage of the highest level of demonic activity... it is of the highest level of spiritual treason in the kingdom of God. This should not be covered up... they should not be handled lightly.... They should not be handled with threats binding them. To me this appears more like the mafia than the ministry of Jesus.

In my mind, leaders who have been in Todd's life, leaders who have had oversight over his life, I believe He was held responsible in God's eyes for not restraining his sons who were vile and full of sin, I believe the people at the door of the tabernacle, and because of this his house lost the ark of God. I believe the leaders with oversight over Todd through the years, have failed the body of Christ in this regard. I believe the church should appropriately discipline Todd in proportion to the seriousness of his sin, offense, and on-going

WHY AM I GOING PUBLIC NOW?

Allow me to explain a little more in depth what I've seen over the years, what I've come to learn in the process.

Over the years, as I've stated above, I've seen the good, the bad, and the ugly with Todd and his wife Jessa. I have a heart for their family and also others like myself who they enjoy helping to establish their ministries. However, based on their behavior and speech, I've seen Todd and Jessa with alcohol many times, I've seen some of their struggles over the years. At the time I saw these things my thoughts were that these are signs of some of the deceptions that Todd and Jessa are no longer embracing a lifestyle of holiness and sanctification as ministers of the gospel. I felt that it wasn't my place to correct them, I felt my time wasn't up there yet, and I had hoped that I could talk to Todd's assistant about an incident involving Todd drinking with his single female assistant at a restaurant with liquor in 2017 while on a ministry trip. I heard back about a week later after that that Rick had disciplined Todd the old ways and it seemed Rick's discipline had no lasting effect.

God eventually separated me from Todd's tribe due to God's increased dealings with me on my own journey. I've seen Todd for the most part, except for a few brief meetings here and there.

I never dreamed that the things I was seeing throughout the years were actually symptomatic of a deeper deception which initially came to me unsolicited, has revealed that truly what I saw throughout the years was a deep deception in both Todd and Jessa's lives.

Since learning about the more horrific sins and abominations of Todd, I've gone through a process of realization that I had been deceived and taken advantage of. Years ago in Alaska, my wife and I sat in the seat of a minister who was glowing reports about Todd saying that He was the best person He had ever worked with in Alaska. I was asked in 2015 to work with Todd and help him establish his new center, and no one ever told us about the things I saw.

I've gone through all the emotions of deep deep sadness and grieving over this level of sin in the heart of a man and the body during this process. But now, after walking through this and carrying this burden, I feel that God's love has been with Todd. I feel that God's love was covering the multitude of sins to give time for Todd to be exposed so the house of God can be cleansed. May acts like this release the tangible fear of the Lord and show how serious a thing it is to minister in the name of the Lord and lead God's people.

But to answer this question as to why I'm going public with this today... I would say it is the unsuccessful attempts to meet with Rick Joyner and discuss these issues. I've tried to the best of my ability but it has appeared that leadership has not been interested in doing the right thing with Todd Benken. I've brought this up over the years and not bring appropriate discipline in proportion to the seriousness of the situation.

I was told by Todd's assistant in late June that Rick was aware of the "recent" allegations that I had made or meet with me before He went on sabbatical for the month of July. Multiple other leaders contacted me online, revealing nothing except to a few leaders in private who I tried to go through to get details. Rick got back from Sabbatical, but heard nothing from him or his office. Finally, on August 5th in this situation, I received a very short generic email response from Rick's assistant basically saying that the process also emailed Rick early on about this situation and received the very same email response that was like it was an auto response and couldn't really be considered an adequate response.

Early on in the process, June/early July, I was contacted by a pastor from Florida who is over 20 years of experience to lead the investigation on this matter. I neglected to talk with him or work with him because I felt that he could be easily manipulated by Todd, which it seems He has been. I could not believe Rick Joyner would be a man in the investigation. This man later told my pastor friend over the phone that He didn't even want to be involved. He confessed their sin, that they should be allowed to continue on in ministry as if nothing happened. I was shocked and disgusted that this man was being used in this situation. He seemed so compromised and not a just, godly, or objective role in this matter.

Todd recently told the world publicly on a Facebook live broadcast of his event "Revival Harvest" that I sent. In Rick's second response to me via email which I received on 8/19/19, He stated that he had "a difficult time believing any of the rest of the report, except for what he knew to be true. It was interesting since many of things about Morningstar in my private report were told to me by Todd Benken."

But this has seemingly been Todd and Rick's united position during this whole process: That Morningstar was a "sin" (where Todd solicited a male intern for sex) and before that time. They're saying that there's nothing wrong with us we have a lot of new evidence and testimony since 2013, which Rick and leadership have said they were aware of.

- We have a witness which states that they saw Todd and his assistant fooling around in 2013
- We have multiple witnesses who have seen the drunkenness, the parties, crude sexual speech, and other inappropriate behavior
- We have screenshots from a young lady in 2018 that show that Todd pursued this young lady for sex

- We have multiple witnesses who verify a story we heard about a male intern of Todd's from...

So, you can clearly see, these reports are not old, they are not all related to 2013 and before a few months ago, and they show a disturbing ongoing pattern of unrepented sin as well as a

Let's stop playing games here. Todd Bentley has broken the law and the Church. Quite frankly I'm sick and tired of it.

I'm a Survivor of Childhood Sexual Abuse, Advocate for Sexual Abuse Awareness. I know what I'm talking about.

The Church seem to think they're above the law and that needs to change – No. When anyone is verbally or physically sexually assaulted in Church and they are then required by LAW to report it to the Police. Should that person not report it as an assault.

I've heard a lot of focus put on Todd and folks worried about him and want to call his 'preaching' is simply attention seeking. It's time to grow up bud. You're not a kid. I speak to you like this because you remind me of me 25-years ago.

I've been Clean & Sober and walking with Jesus since 1998.

I'd be happy to talk to ya anytime. Walk with ya as well.

But where's the concern for the victims.

We have males and females who were once Christians, turning their backs on the faith. If you were involved I'd be very concerned for my soul. Ya know? Something about if you turn your back on the Lord and you'll get chucked into the sea. Any of this ringing a bell.

Stop playing games...Remember 'The Truth will set you Free'

Thank you Steven Powell and Tim Hurd!!!! I am so grateful and thank you for revealing the truth that every Christian should be taking when it comes to evil and demonic activity. It's not just when it comes with the hidden sin that so easily besets the soul within the church, but also as he is holy. Often there is more work in keeping up "appearances" and keeping up appearances. People are often afraid they will be found out but it's God and only God who will find them out. The Lord and keeping up appearances can only last so long. Sin will take out a person.

I had no idea that this was going on and I almost send one of my children into a trap. I made another choice had they known that the children they raised were being deceived.

Truly I thank God that he used men after His heart to reveal. I know that my children could have had many regrets but God had me find this tonight because He is faithful.

* I'm praying for restoration for those who have been tricked, ensnared and trapped.

* More and more God is exposing and removing the so called Pastors and leaders who have repented sin.

* The Bride of Christ is rising from the ashes and the church will be strengthened.

Truly, I STAND WITH YOU!

I'll be praying in the Holy Spirit for you.

Lord, we ask for a protective spiritual and natural covering over Stephen Powell and anyone who has been formed against any of them will ever prosper again; we thank You, Lord, that God has heard our prayers and decree that the Todd & Jessa Bentley's and Rick Joyner's of the world continue to prosper in their evil-doings heretofore not dealt with; we say that You, Father, will expose and punish them and that this evilness is bound on earth as it is bound in heaven, cast down to hell and we thank You for letting the truth come forth, as we pray all this in the Presence of Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior.

These are the things that weaken the body of Christ..
There is a big difference between someone being restored, and making excuses for their sin. The mega church pastor who allows money and fame to pull them away from the Word of God. Find yourself a small country church where the pastor refuses to compromise.. Beware of those you look up to for teaching and counsel.. if you have a pastor who compromises, you will suffer..

Stephen, sorry to hear you had to go through this, now you will learn what true ministry since 1989. You must not get derailed by this. I feel you're taking on forward as the Holy Spirit leads you. I really feel that God didn't give him more and continue to prey on the weak and feeble? These aren't sins that should be Rick Joyner have wrongly covered his sin since 2011 or 2012 and so has Bill. them.

"Vengeance is mine, I shall repay..." God will only protect you as you walk when give it more than a few hours a week as you feel led to. If God has called you saying to me, as I never heard of you before, that He has given you an evangelist.

I feel that you did the right thing making it public, I wouldn't have described it as unintended. It's very important that you just need to make sure that none of the corroborate a sin if you only have 1 witness then don't make that public. If you ask for forgiveness and ask God to forgive you. And with anything the Holy Spirit ask God to forgive you, then the burden will be lifted. If they go after you in court be just fine as long as you have a clear conscience.

Rick Joyner has the wrong concept of ministry and how it functions from a Bible visionary leader, he who wants to be the greatest must be the servant of all, then to allow anyone to call them Pastor Rick Joyner, for you are all brothers. Please no any title. You will only see; "I Paul, called by God to be an apostle. No one call pagans do that. I say that because you say that Rick J. is over Todd and Todd when you see a brother caught up in a sin. Take another brother and confront the Messiah. And Yashua is the head of His body. Whose body is it? Your's, Rick's servants.

I pray for God's peace to fill you

Honestly, none of this surprises me at all. I don't have any experience with Tom and those two back in the days of the Lakeland revival and they insisted I go since I was a pastor when it comes to refusing to recognize, and correct sin and gross misuse of power in a church of faith church and I was being sexually harassed by my senior pastor who was abusing myself and others. Since my pastor was well connected I contacted the police and spoke to their daughter. I filed a former complaint with both AFCM International and my house was vandalized and our AC unit electric supply was dug up and destroyed at church. I told them about all the inappropriate behavior, the solicitations, the abuse and the leaders did nothing. He was never even talked to. The Youth pastor and I left the church. Nothing was ever done by higher up leaders. So no this doesn't surprise me at all. Nothing. Rich and powerful men do anything to protect their wealth. I learned this the hard way movement 10 years ago and I'm now watching as one by one these "ministers" fall. One they will all fall.

Mam, you do not know that they will all fall. Predicting that for all NAR is an evil. Joyner and speaking for him this way is unfair. He has put out his face book rants and such grand condemnations is undue process. It would seem Mr. Joyner endorse and culpable in some way- at least to speak into the matter and warn or caution those who have comprehended any part he should have contributed to that end. It would appear to wrestle against satan and with our own short comings to become all we are made for. It is not to lay it forth don't trashing it because it isn't working will only accomplish satan's plan. Isn't that what we want for our own kids? If Rick hasn't gotten it all "right" that is the reason for listening to him. If there are blind spots I will be praying he discover them. I can only hope for wisdom on his part. We are not God. Ultimately, God's word must be the standard. The New Testament new commandment given by Jesus. We are to be rooted and grounded in the Definitely, satan must not be allowed to get his way in bringing down sheep that are faithful. We must speak and judiciously protect His sheep. God wants the sheep comforted and encouraged until He revokes that call we should each fear God and be careful we do not justify sin. We should bring out the ones who will reprove, harness and restore Mr. Bentley; those who are faithful to Jesus, come!

AMEN! I have walked with Rick Joyner for over 30 years, having been a Partner in the Body of Christ with integrity, compassion, and truth better than any other Board that all other ministries should emulate. Apparently when MorningStar (Rick) Powell was not satisfied with Rick's delay in addressing his charges against Tom and Rick. This is NOT the way godly men should Biblically conduct themselves. I encourage addressing the charges against him in his recent daily "rants" which are far from encouraging to listen to what has happened from Rick's own lips, than his accusations.
